

Classification

Activity Worksheet

1. Tick the boxes that you believe match the group of animals.

	Mammal 	Fish 	Amphibian 	Reptile 	Invertebrate 	Bird
I have feathers
I lay eggs
I have no backbone
I live in water
I feed my young milk
I am cold-blooded
I have a skeleton
I can fly

2. What is the difference between vertebrates and invertebrates?

3. Circle how many legs invertebrates can have

0 2 4 6 8 10+

4. True or False (Write T or F next to the question)

- a. Amphibians can breathe underwater? _____
- b. Mammals live on land and in water? _____
- c. All birds can fly? _____
- d. Reptiles are warm-blooded? _____
- e. All animals have a backbone? _____
- f. Mammals give birth to their young? _____
- g. An invertebrate has an exoskeleton? _____
- h. Reptiles have scales? _____
- i. Birds only eat plants? _____
- j. Amphibians can't go on land? _____
- k. There is a mammal with 2 legs? _____
- l. Invertebrates lay eggs? _____

5. Classify which group these animals fit into.

Mammal	Bird	Fish	Reptile
Amphibian		Invertebrate

Cow _____

Shark _____

Mouse _____

Penguin _____

Frog _____

Crocodile _____

Lizard _____

Chicken _____

Butterfly _____

Newt _____

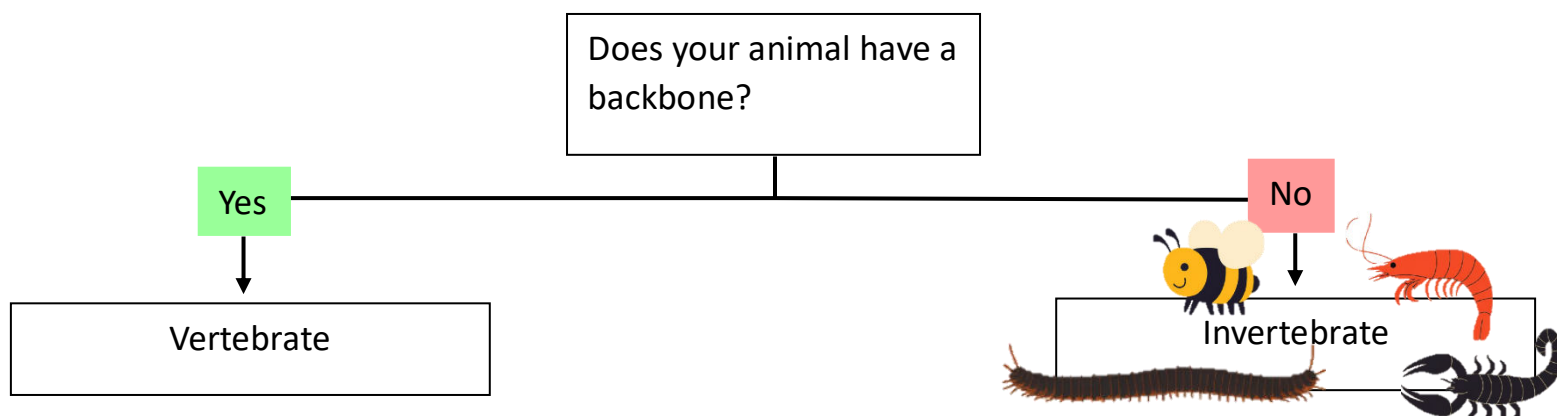

Tuna

Snail

Determine the appropriate group for each animal using the key below.

Invertebrate Key

Vertebrate Key

